Pastor's Perspective

I took a look at the attendance for 2017, something I'm always a little cautious about for fear of doing something God would frown upon. There is a story in 2 Samuel where King David counted his fighting men and was reprimanded quite severely for it. However, the book of Acts speaks of the number of Christians being added to the church on a regular basis. My prayer is for God to increase His Kingdom, not merely to increase our church. So, the numbers suggest that God is indeed increasing our church. Depending on how one crunches the numbers, you could honestly conclude that there are over 450 people connected to FBC, while the average attendance is closer to 360-370. But numbers aren't too exciting. What's exciting is seeing new faces every week at church. It's exciting because I know virtually every new person who walks through the doors of FBC is coming because of a personal invitation from a friend who is excited about God and wants others to experience what God can do in their lives as well. It's exciting that the church is growing deeper, not just bigger. People are serving, giving and learning, not just attending, and that's what's so amazing about what God is doing in our church. This past month we created some space at the 10:15 service by having our kid's ministry start at the beginning of service instead of in the middle. That helped, but we are still very full. There are a few more things we can do. We can encourage some people to attend the 8am service, which is also growing, but not full. We can start another worship service. And we can build a new sanctuary. We may end up doing all three of these things. These are not the only possibilities, but other possibilities we've considered don't fit with our vision. The building committee has come to the conclusion, after several months of prayer, study and deliberations that relocating is not where the Lord is leading our church. That being said, the plans to add to our current building are being adjusted, and will be presented as soon as possible. Although we are fairly anxious to get going on something, the most important thing is to do the right thing, and that means making sure we do what God wants. So, we continue to pray. Pray for wisdom. Pray for direction. Pray that God would make His will clearly known. Pray for the new folks at FBC. Pray for God to reveal your role in what He's doing. And most of all pray that God would increase His kingdom.

In Christ, Pastor Luke

COLLIDE YOUTH!

It's been a busy summer. As I'm writing, I am in the midst of the family mission trip and shortly after I return from this trip, me and Marty (our youth ministry intern) will spend the following few days in Holland, MI with a bunch of crazy junior high kids with a week packed full of Jesus, fun and friends!

This week during our family mission trip I've been blessed to see families grow closer and deeper bonds be made amongst our church family too. In fact, one of the moms said to me today, "Heather, thank you so much for making me come to this." I couldn't help but laugh! I knew she would love having time away with her kids; her kids are loving it too. Lord willing, I'd love to make this something we do on rotation within the youth ministry, so if your family wasn't able to go this time, hopefully the next time we go, you can hop on board.

Marty will be finishing up his internship at First Baptist. He has been a wonderful addition to the youth ministry and I will definitely miss not having him around anymore. Marty has a plethora of gifts that will be a great benefit to many as he pursues the Lord's calling to serve Him in youth ministry. I am excited for what God has in store for Marty.

This year, Collide kicks off on August 30th! High school and junior high will both meet on Wednesdays, but will stay completely separate. The junior high program will be run in the Fellowship Hall with the high school students staying in the youth room the whole time. Once a month, starting in September, the high school students will have some Sunday night hangout sessions. It will be the fourth Sunday of each month, we've got things planned like bonfires, a worship and prayer night, a trip to the pumpkin patch, laser tag and few other great activities. If you're wondering how you can get more information about all these great activities, come join us at the parent/student lunch August 20th right after church in fellowship hall for a completely free lunch! It is a blessing to serve this church and the community!

In Christ, Heather Q.

Kids Club Ministry

Last session at Kids Club we explored the beginning of creation as well as the covenant relationship God made with Abraham in our Gospel Project series. This fall, we will learn about Moses and how God delivered his people from slavery to give them life and purpose in Him. They were desperate and they needed God to help them!

With this coming session in the forefront of my mind, I have been thinking about the times in my life when I needed rescued from a desperate situation. Last year I experienced a brief period of what I would describe as sleep paralysis. It's like hallucination-like dreams that seem so real but you're frozen to do anything about even after you feel like you're awake. The longer they lasted the more anxious I became before bedtime. I remember praying to God asking Him why they wouldn't go away. I just wanted to know why and God gave me an answer. It was like a whisper on my heart and He said, "Mollie, you've spent more time with me these last few weeks than you have in a long time." And He was right. I was so tired and worn down that I was clinging to God desperately for help in a way I hadn't been when everything was fine. So I simply said, thank you for allowing me to walk through this because it has reminded me that I need you. I'm not saying God was causing this on purpose necessarily, but I had something to learn in my desperate hour. I had become so self-sufficient in the easy times that I kind of didn't need Him. After a few more nights, they started to fade away. Lesson learned... until next time (haha).

Just like how Moses and the Hebrews needed God to physically deliver them from their oppressors, we also experience desperate times that call for desperate measures. Whether it's getting stuck on a big decision, going round and round in a toxic relationship, helping a child deal with behavioral or health issues, divorce, death of a loved one, struggling with anxiety or depression, climbing out of addiction, drowning in debt, facing the consequences of bad decisions and the list goes on. Proverbs 2:3-7 says, "...If you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God...He holds victory in store for the upright, He is a shield to those whose walk is blameless."

May you experience victory in the Lord in whatever you're walking through this season.

Thanks for reading! Mollie

Adult Classes

Taught at Pastor Seth & Denise Bowker's Home @ 503 NE 6th Ave. Aledo-The Crazy Cycle in Marriage-Class is FREE to attend—Craziness is when we keep doing the same thing — again and again — with the same ill effect. Marital craziness is when we do the same thing — over and over — with the same negative results. It's called the Crazy Cycle. When hurt and frustrated, we continue reacting in negative ways to motivate our spouse to be positive. Can you believe it? That's like flipping broken light switches for 30 minutes. All who are married go through this cycle. The topics change, and the intensity varies, but the crazy cycle continues. One day the argument may be about a diet book, the next day the argument may be about child-rearing methods. Next month, it's about a marriage book and then about the lack of money. This happens among good willed people. Sadly, some think they have a horrible marriage because of this craziness. Truth is, they are inches away from making an adjustment that can set them in a whole new and positive course. If this sounds familiar, this may be a great study for you and your spouse.

J.I. Packer—Knowing God - Taught by Pastor Luke - One of the top 50 books that have shaped evangelicals.

J. I. Packer's classic has been an important tool to help Christians around the world discover the wonder, the glory and the joy of knowing God. Stemming from Packer's profound theological knowledge, Knowing God brings together two important facets of the Christian faith— knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God. Explaining both who God is and how we can relate to Him, Packer divides his book into three sections: The first directs our attention to how and why we know God, the second to the attributes of God and the third to the benefits enjoyed by those who know Him intimately. This guide leads readers into a greater understanding of God while providing advice to gaining a closer relationship with Him as a result.

The Gospel Project—Stories & Signs-Taught By Kevin & Pam Ricke at their home 1100 S. College Ave., Aledo-Class is Free to Attend—Features 13 Bible study sessions which cover Jesus the storyteller reviewing his Parables as well as Jesus the Miracle worker which will cover the miracles of Jesus.

Financial Peace—Taught by Beth & Chris Whitenack @ FBC
Cost of the class is $85 for the FPU kit.

During the class you will find out how to: Make a budget that you will understand and actually use. Get out of debt and stay that way. Communicate with your spouse about finances. Invest with confidence and Change your financial future. All presented in a fun and entertaining way. If you have questions, or would like to register for the class, sign up on today's Connection Card or see Class leaders, Chris or Beth Whitenack. This class can be life changing!

We encourage men to lead their families—and ultimately our nation—with deliberate action, resisting the role of passive onlooker. This retreat is designed for men ages 16 and older.

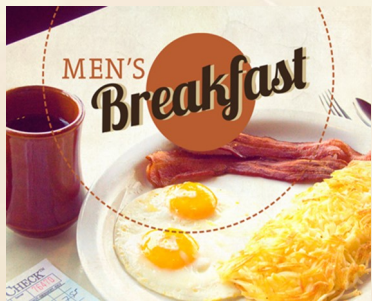

*Cost includes conference fee, lodging and meals while at the conference you will need money for 2 meals while on the road. Departure will be from FBC on Friday, Oct. 20th at 10am and we'll be back in Aledo on Sunday, Oct. 22nd in the early evening. Interested? Sign up on Sunday's Connection Card. The actual cost of the retreat is $150 so if you are able to pay $150 that helps with the FBC budget.

Screwtape Letters

Check out this classic by C. S. Lewis

The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis is a classic masterpiece of religious satire that entertains readers with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life and foibles from the vantage point of Screwtape, a highly placed assistant to "Our Father Below." At once wildly comic, deadly serious, and strikingly original, C.S. Lewis's The Screwtape Letters is the most engaging account of temptation—and triumph over it—ever written. We have a few copies for purchase on the Women's Ministry table for $6.

Dave and I want to thank our home church family for all the prayers and support on our behalf when Dave had his heart surgery and the complications following that, I know he would not be here today had he not been lifted in prayer by so many many. He is now in cardiac rehab and is doing better every day. Thank you again from our hearts and our love.

A Word From Pastor Seth Thirsty!

"For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants" Isaiah 44:3.

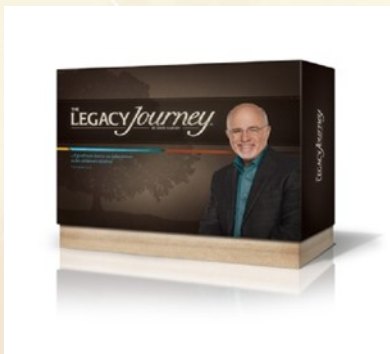

Have you come to the point of being thirsty? No matter when you've accepted Jesus Christ as your savior the question remains. Are you thirsty?

Another way to put it is asking, seeking, knocking. Are you seeking asking knocking?

The revival of God's Spirit in us and around us is now. Are you thirsty? ~Seth
