MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH ALEDO—DECEMBER 2016

Pastor Luke's Perspective

Finding Peace at Christmas

Christmas is almost here again. Every year it seems to come quicker and quicker. And every year we are reminded to keep Christ at the center of the season. It's funny that we should need to be reminded. Maybe what we need more is to be aware of what prevents us from keeping Christ at the center, and some practical tips to help us avoid those inevitable pitfalls. We often talk about the commercialism of Christmas robbing us of the worship of Christ, but I suggest that it's the busy-ness and the people-pleasing that are the biggest detractors of Christ during His birthday month. We concern ourselves so much with all that we need to get done, and all the people we need to make happy that we neglect to actually enjoy Christmas. Many people feel overwhelmed at Christmas. That sense of being overwhelmed causes stress and creates anxiety. Many people seem to be relieved when Christmas is over so they can slow the pace down to a reasonable level. But, Christ's arrival to earth sparked some of the most awe inspiring worshipful events recorded in Scripture, from an angelic choir, to shepherds rejoicing that they saw a Baby in a manger, to wise Persians traveling thousands of miles to present gifts to the King of the Jews.

Worship is the opposite of worry, and pleasing people will prevent us from pleasing God. So, what do we do? Make space in your December calendar for rest. That might mean saying "no" to some things. I suggest "scheduling" at least one night each week in December to do nothing. For some people it might feel strange to have one or two evenings each week where nothing is scheduled. That's #me we need to stay home, enjoy the family, rest and relax. We also might need to schedule Christmas shopping and try to make it enjoyable. If we don't schedule it, we might rob our free nights. Also, extra planning might need to be done to make it more enjoyable, like making a date out of it with your spouse or meeting a friend for coffee. The point is that we are intentionally trying to be unhurried. Another aspect of this unhurried time is to make sure we're carving out time for the Lord. When we neglect our quiet #me with God in order to get things done, we feel it twice. Not only do we miss out on the peace that God grants us when we seek Him first, but we replace it with busy tasks that add stress and anxiety. Christmas will be on Sunday this year. Many people will likely be "too busy" to go to church. It would be a shame to miss out on gathering with God's people, in His house, on His Son's birthday. What a wonderful opportunity for young parents to teach our kids what Christmas is really all about. When we look back on Christmas 2016, I know we won't remember the parties we attended or the gifts we received, but worshiping our Savior will be etched in our minds. May the peace and the joy of Christmas be yours this year in Christ, Pastor Luke

A couple of weeks ago I took a homeschool student with me to the intermediate school to have lunch with some 6th graders. After lunch the students enjoy a short recess before they have to go back to class. Students kept saying to me, "Heather, we started a prayer group during recess, you've got to come join us!" I followed some students outside and what followed upon my arrival at recess left me in a bit of shock and amazement. Students began shouting to the rest of the kids at recess, "hey, it's prayer time," then, many students came bolting towards the prayer circle, knowing it was time for prayer. There had to have been at least 40 students in that circle.

Collide Youth News

We joined hands and prayed together. Nearly half of the students prayed. They were truly a visible witness to the rest of their classmates.

This is something they do everyday. God is moving in our youth. Pray for the harvest to continue in their hearts, continued boldness and courage as they step out in faith to be known witnesses for Christ and may we, as adults, be encouraged to do the same.

Pray also for the Post-Fall Retreat Feast and Baptism Celebration on Dec. 11th.

We will be baptizing a number of students who came to faith in Christ at Fall Retreat and then are inviting families of all the fall retreat attendees to join us for lunch afterwards. Our prayer is that many families who are not connected to the church will come that day.

One last thing to celebrate is the bus ministry. Last week we picked up 27 students for Wednesday night programming.

Students gathering for prayer at MCIS

Of course, we can't shove 27 students into a 15-passenger bus, so many faithful followers stepped up to pick up students. Ask God to provide for us, we want to reach more and more students and our true desire is to bring the gospel to every student in the Mercer County area. There are more out there to reach. Ask God to provide for our needs so we can reach more students for His namesake!

In Christ's Love,
Heather Q.

Kids Club Ministry

It's Christmas season again; the time of year where we celebrate Jesus' birth, the gift of family & friends, and when we have lots of opportunities to bless others. I'm sure most of us can think of a time when we needed a helping hand. Maybe it was fairly minor in the big scheme of things, or maybe it was major and your appreciation just can't be put into words. Whenever someone blesses me with an act of service, a special gift of thanks, or reaches down & helps me up when I can't do it myself, it's a reminder to me that there is good in the world. It reminds me that there is hope and that I'm not alone.

Our church has lots of ways to be that reminder for others this month. One in particular is a project I'm working on with the kids during December in Kids Worship. Kids Worship is children's church for kids ages 3-4th grade during the 10:15am service. You don't need to sign-up! Just come downstairs after the offertory. Kids especially don't want to miss out this advent because we're going on an adventure with Billy the goat to learn more about the biggest gift of all, Jesus. We'll be following God's example of blessing others by raising money to give goats to children in need through World Vision (www.worldvision.org).

Our goal in Kids Worship is to raise $150 to buy two goats! You'd be surprised that one goat can change everything! Her milk provides great protein to help children grow. The family can also sell any extra to earn money for medicines and other necessities. A healthy dairy goat can give up to 16 cups of milk a day. Goat's milk is easier to digest than cow's milk and is an excellent source of calcium, protein, and other essential nutrients that growing children need. Goats are practical animals-flourishing in harsh climates while producing valuable manure to fertilize crops and vegetable gardens.

The whole church is invited to join us in this project as families will be leading us in our Advent celebration each Sunday. You'll get a sneak peek into World Vision and how we can bless others with gifts of goats this season. If you'd like to donate, just drop your donation in the offering plate this month. If you're donating cash, please place it in one of the pew envelopes and put "Goats" on the outside of it. If you're writing out a check, write it out to "FBC" with "Goats" in memo. Thank you for helping our kids with this project and the families who will be receiving a goat this season. Merry Christmas! ~Mollie

Steve & Adell Struble

Dear FBC, Thank you for the scholarship you gave me as well as the money from the Deacon Fund for my August rent. I don't know where I would be today if not for that incredible gift. This semester has not been easy financially, but your gift greatly contributed to my well being. God has provided in amazing ways this semester and continues to work in my life. I am truly blessed to have such a great church supporting me in my college education. Thank you again for the blessings you have bestowed to me. In Christ, Marty Rind

A Lamp Unto My Feet

“A Lamp Unto My Feet”—an

indepth study of the 119th Psalm—Taught by Pastor Seth and open to everyone—Every true believer is daily moving toward his eternal destination. However, before that final crossing into the land of immortality, the Christian pilgrim must first travel through a hostile empire, fraught with "dangers, toils and snares." How will he find his way through this land of shadows? Fortunately, the "Father of lights" has not left us to fend for ourselves; but rather, He has provided a roadmap, the Word of God.

A sequel to Gallagher's The Walk of Repentance, this is a 12-week journey through the beautiful Psalm 119. This practical, personal study is a great resource for any individual seeking guidance in the midst of life's struggles. Through daily meditation readings and questions for reflection, believers will be asked to consider the truths of Scripture. At each week's end, they will also read about the life of David, a man after God's own heart and author of this epic psalm. Every reader will be brought into a deeper love, respect and appreciation for God's Word.

God the Redeemer

A study of Exodus

Home study at Jordan & Crystal Clarks & Kevin & Pam Ricke's Home

Facilitated by Jordan Clark and Kevin Ricke at their homes. Open to all. Sign up and you will be given a home address for the Clarks or the Rikes. According to the plan of God, demonstrated in the life of Joseph, God's people left the promised land for Egypt to find relief from a famine. There they prospered until a new Pharaoh rose up and enslaved them. Their cries were heard by their covenant-making God, who began His glorious work of redemption of His people through a mediator, Moses. Through many miraculous displays of His power, God redeemed His people and led them out of slavery, a foreshadow of the greater redemption from sin that comes through the greater mediator, Jesus Christ.

Session titles:
The Redeemer Responds, The Redeemer Reveals His Glory, The Redeemer Judges and Saves, Worthy of Praise, The Wilderness Test, & Rebellion Against the Redeemer
Features: Biblically rooted and gospel-centered content. Application of key theological tenets -Historical background that creates greater context for spiritual growth -Biblical truth that's reliable -Provocative questions, scriptural support and text, application, and preparation
Come to know Jesus more intimately as your redeemer. -See first-hand how God's revelatory power through Moses looks forward to the gospel story.

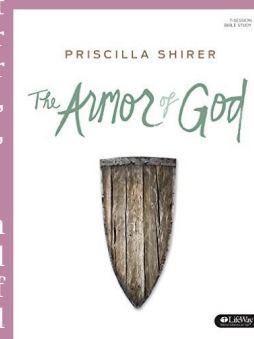

Prayer Group

Join an in home prayer group during WNL. Mick & Laurie Louck along with Jason & Shelly Snyder will host a prayer group at their homes. The first week will be at the Loucks and then it will alternate back and forth. This is not a study on prayer, it is praying. Open to men and women of all ages who desire to seek God together in prayer for our church, our community, our youth, our nation, revival. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am among them. Matthew 18:20. The Louck's address is: 612 NE 2nd Ave., Aledo & the Snyder's address is: 409 NW 8th Ave., Aledo.

Armor of God by Priscilla Shirer

Jeanne Barber will host this women's only study in her home-806 NE 3rd Ave., Aledo. All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams, your destiny.

But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you're tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, this study is for you. The enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. The Armor of God, more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory.

A Note From Pastor Seth

The birth of Jesus

As I find myself in full swing of Christmas celebration, decorating the house and putting up the tree, my mind quickly goes to thoughts of the perfect gift to give. I watch for the best deals as I get my black Friday game face on. I usually chicken out on black Friday and go for Cyber Monday instead. I rapidly fall into this trap every year. I can forget the purpose of this great Christmas Season and celebration because of all the marketing and hub bub. Don't fall into the trap. Remember it really is being like God and giving. The truth is that God loved the world so much He gave His only begotten Son. BEST GIFT EVER! Giving the world a gift and blessing believers for eternity.

God Bless Your Giving ~ Seth
