“Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. Then you will win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man.” ~ Proverbs 3:3-4

Last month I mentioned in a message that God wants to bless us, and we want to be blessed, so there really shouldn't be a problem. The reason we miss the blessing is because we aren't in a position to be blessed. In other words, we aren't blessable. In fact, I would dare to say that most people are desperately seeking to be blessed, asking for it, hoping for it, complaining that they aren't, but unwilling to do what is necessary to be blessed.

The passage from Proverbs states that if we want to find favor with God, we must bind love and faithfulness to us so closely that it's etched on our hearts. I don't think it is too hard to understand what that means. Simply put, treating others like we'd like to be treated (Matthew 7:12), and obeying God to the best of our understanding, without making excuses for our bad behavior puts us in good standing with our Lord. Before I say anything else, I think it's important to clarify the difference between being blessed and being saved. The only thing a person can do to be saved is respond in faith to the grace God offers in Christ. Jesus died to pay for sin, and we accept His payment. As a saved person, we have the potential to be blessed.

What does being blessed look like? I'm going to go out on a limb and suggest that God's favor and blessing have a lot less to do with the outward life than they do with the inward life. Two things in particular result from God's presence. The first is peace. If I have God's peace, the quality of life goes up infinitely. Think about it this way. If everything in your life is going well, such as finances, job, health, relationships, but you are constantly anxious, fearful, or depressed, you'd be miserable, even though your circumstances are good. On the other hand, if you have God's supernatural peace, even difficult circumstances don't rob you of joy. Peace is a powerful blessing.

The second thing is purpose. The joy and meaning of life is found in a sense of purpose. The idea that what I'm doing has some significance beyond simply surviving. Again, think about it this way. If everything is going reasonably well in your life, but you don't have any hope that it matters, or that nothing you do today matters to another human being on earth, how motivated would you be to continue? Maybe this is personal to me, but I am excited about my life and ministry because I believe that God is using it for His purposes, and it matters.

So, our goal is to offer teaching and community that equip and inspire people to be blessable. We hope that every single worship service will provide the encouragement and tools you need to walk closer with Christ, and find His peace and purpose in your life. All of the ministries are intended to do the same. We hope this newsletter will give you all the information you need to get plugged in and involved. In Christ, Luke

Kids Club Ministry

Last week I had a pretty real conversation with some students in the 4th and 5th grade Sunday School class. I'm going to sidetrack for a moment and say I love Sunday School! It's an hour each week where we have an opportunity to sit around the table with a smaller group of kids and chat about practical matters of being a believer in a way that we can't do at Kids Club or Kids Worship. We look at God's Word and then we talk about how that applies in real life. If your kiddos aren't in Sunday School, I strongly encourage it! We have a dedicated crew of volunteers who teach and pour into each child and it's so worth it!

Well, anyway, the topic last week was baptism and I shared Romans 6:4 with them. "We were buried with him by baptism into death, in order that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life." Baptism doesn't save you. It's a heart decision you make with Jesus that saves you. Once you've made that decision though, the believer is commanded to be baptized to show God and others that they are new! I got out a tub of water and visually illustrated that when a believer goes under the water, it shows people that you believe Jesus died for your sins and that you're dead to your old, sinful way of life. He's cleansed you from the inside out! And when you come up out of the water, you show others that you believe God brought Jesus back to life and that you are living a new life in him. Carefully listen the next time to what the pastor says when he is baptizing someone...this is it!

This is where we got real. I had the kids talk about the difference between their old life and new one. The kids started sharing the sins that were hard to let go of from their "old" lives. Lying and sneaking were big ones. I shared with the kids how I got into a habit of lying when I was about their age because I just thought I could get away with it. There were five kids in my family and it was easy to sneak and hide because my parents were distracted. I told them that once I started doing it I continued to lie out of habit. I just didn't lie about big stuff. I lied about really stupid stuff that I didn't need to lie about. But it was wrong and I knew it. I needed to choose to do the right thing even if I could get away with it. We talked about when we start to lie or sneak (or whatever the sin is), we have to correct ourselves right away. And if we already messed up, we have to confess right away even if it's embarrassing or if we get in trouble. That's the only way to break that old habit. Being righteous and new in Christ is doing right in God's eyes no matter who's watching or paying attention. If I'm new in Christ, I have to resist my "old" way of doing things and the only way to do this is getting connected with God daily through his Word, talking to him, and surrounding myself with a Body of Believers who desire the new way of life, too.

Parents, I encourage you to take time and really talk to your kids about the habits they have that are not God-honoring. And help set them up for success. Don't ignore that white lie. Don't let that sneakiness go unaddressed. Don't let rude or disrespectful behavior continue. This is the time to be having real, honest, transparent conversations with your kids about living in God-honoring ways. Give them practical ways to break their habits and make sure you point out where you struggle so they know they're not alone in it! Kids want real. They want to see we struggle, too! And you as the parent, have the opportunity to have the greatest impact in their faith walk.

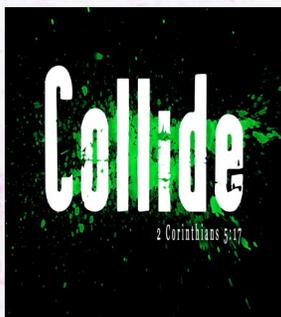

The baptism lesson plan will be available at Kids Corner if you'd like to have a peek about what we learned! Thanks for reading! ~Mollie

Upcoming Events

Continuous Reminder to Yield

As all the crew members begin to report to the deck because the all hands-on deck signal has been sounded by Luke. Please keep in mind the work as worship or service to God and not for any other purpose. I've often fallen into that trap and then get frustrated when not thanked or noticed. I cannot serve God based on recognition because then I become proud about what I have then accomplished. I'm constantly reminded of John 15 the vine and the branch and verse 5b says that "... for apart from me you can do nothing."

God will usually send me a reminder when I'm stuck in serving in my own strength. Usually it's a situation in which I'm so desperate for Him to help me that it leads me in deeper prayer, the vine and crying out for help. Oh, to be reminded daily how desperate I'm for God to lead my life and direct my day. My devotions and areas of ministry keep reminding me of this point "Beware of any work for God that causes or allows you to avoid concentrating on Him. A great number of Christian workers worship their work. The only concern of Christian workers should be their concentration on God." (Utmost for His Highest). My focus and concentration is on God and not on the work. A freedom will overtake you when you're entirely yielded to God. The work, a ministry or doing anything becomes a way to show God how you love Him. -Seth

Women's Ministry

Secret Sister Kickoff – All ladies are invited to participate in the Secret Sister Program. Secret Sister program details and sign-up sheets are at the Women's Ministry table in the lobby. Return your form by May 6th to the Women's Ministry table and we'll do the drawing following the May 6th 10:15am service.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY ON A MISSION

The women's ministry team has adopted a mission to pray for all our women who are members or regular attenders here at FBC. To work toward that goal, we have recruited 20 ladies willing to pray for those women (over 200!) as they feel led over the course of the year. Cards have been sent by these 20 ladies to the specific women they will be praying for. This does not take the place of prayer cards or coverage provided by the prayer team and deacons. It is our hope that each woman will feel strengthened, blessed, and loved by these prayers. If you are a regular attender/member and have not received a card letting you know who is praying for you, please leave your name with Pam at the church office (582-7812). Any questions should be directed to Jeanne Barber or Peggy Johnson.

2018 Women's Conferences

The following conferences will be sponsored by FBC's Women's Ministry up to $100 for one conference per year per woman. Contact Jenny Dixon for Information.

True Woman Conference

Revive Our Hearts Ministry — Indianapolis

September 27—29

Purchase your own conference ticket at truwoman18.com and email Jenny Dixon at jenllong@hotmail.com or call her at 309.373.0104 to let her know you are attending. FBC will pay for the Hotel expenses for 4 women per room.

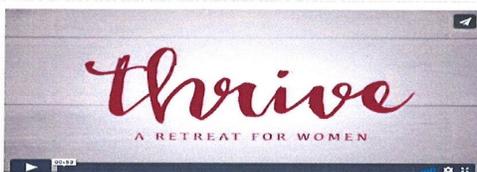

Women's Thrive Conference

Life Action - Buchanan Michigan

Online Registration Begins in August at firstbaptistaledo.com.

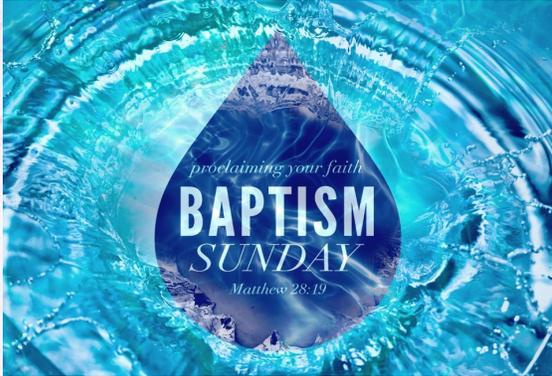

November 2—4

[Note: There is also a spring conference here held on April 13—15 that FBC women can attend (and the Women's Ministry will financially support. However the Women's Ministry is not coordinating a group trip for the spring conference. All travel and lodging arrangements will need to be made individually.)

Baptism Sunday/Good Read/Mission Team

Baptism Sunday at FBC Sunday, May 27th at 8am & 10:15am

Baptism is an important event in the believer's walk with Jesus Christ. The Bible talks about water immersion baptism in which a believer makes a public confession of their faith. Jesus led the way in example of water baptism! If you are wondering what it means to be baptized in the Christian faith, here are a few verses that can look up that can help explain baptism.

Romans 6:1-18, Act 2:38-41, Luke 3:21-22, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 22:16, Colossians 2:12 & Galatians 3:27

Have you been considering "officially joining" First Baptist by becoming a member, verses an attender but you were not sure what your next steps are? For some, it may mean transferring membership from another church, for others who have had a believer's baptism it may be making a statement of faith but for some it is taking that first step of obedience and getting baptized. Whatever your circumstance is, if you would like to learn more about becoming a member at First Baptist, Pastor Luke or Pastor Seth would be happy to sit down and talk with you about it. Call the church office at 582-7812 to make an appointment.

Book Of The Month

The Strategy of Satan by Warren Wiersbe

A timeless classic on the strategies of Christian warfare. This book is a manual of arms for the Christian soldier. It is not a devotional reader for the believer who has gone AWOL. It is a deadly serious guidebook for dedicated Christians who are on the battlefield and want to know how to win. Warren W. Wiersbe discusses basic biblical instruction on defeating the strategies of the devil. Centering his material on Satan's attacks as a deceiver, destroyer, ruler, and accuser, Wiersbe emphasizes conquering the enemy by obeying God's truth. Chapters are included on defeating the devil in the church and in the home.

Copies of this book will be available for $7 each. Books can be found at the church office window or ordered on Amazon.

FBC LA Dream Center Mission Team Update!

On April 9, 13 men and women traveled to Los Angeles, California to serve at the Dream Center.

Our tasks ranged from kitchen work to building furniture. Our team consisted of Jenny and Josh Dixon, Drue and Perry Baugher, Andrew and Dayna Leichty, Dennis and Penny Dixon, Janice Klink, Jessica Swift, Travis Boswell, Orion Wilkerson and Pastor Luke Dunn. All the team members would like to thank the church for their support! Here are a few testimonies of the week.

"The dream center is a lot more than just feeding the poor. They share the message of Christ in the programming for adults that need to get off of the drugs and change behaviors. They instruct the young adults how to be leaders that are Christ centered to serve those in need" said Janice Klink.

Travis Boswell said "The mission trip to the L.A. Dream Center was amazing. We were able to go and meet people where they were, in their own environment, and were able to share the hope and joy and love of Jesus Christ. Praise God for those who laid the foundation for us to be able to go and do the things that we were able to do that week."

Jenny Dixon—Mission Board Chair

Uniquely Gifted Workshop-New Addition May 9th at 6:30pm- Led by Luke Dunn

There has never been another "you." No one in history has ever had your DNA or fingerprints. You are a unique creation, fearfully, and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14). As amazing as that is by itself, the Bible also tells us that God has given every one of His children a gift! We love to be reminded that God's great gift is His Son, Jesus Christ (John 3:16). But God didn't stop there. He also gave us the gift of His Holy Spirit, which enables and empowers us to live with a purpose (1 Corinthians 12:7). Through the Uniquely Gifted Workshop, you'll be equipped and inspired, to fan your unique gift into flame (2 Timothy 1:6). God gave His greatest gift on the cross not merely to save sinners, but to make new creations that would do great things for His Kingdom (John 14:12). My hope and prayer is that by offering a monthly workshop, we would see an entire church equipped to serve in ways we've never experienced before. Sign up on Sunday's Connection Card or call the church office at 309-582-7812 to register.
