"The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many." ~ Matthew 20:28

What is God doing? What is God saying? Over the past several weeks I've been asking those questions. It is practically the only thing I'm concerned with in my conversations with God. I read passages in the Bible that say "the Word of the Lord was rare in those days..." 1 Samuel 3:1, and what seems obvious to me is that there was an expectation to hear from God, not only from the printed Word of His biblical revelation, but also some form of constant guidance, confirmation, and uniquely revealed vision of the near and distant future. In any case, God has my attention, and I know He is speaking and moving and preparing for great things. One of the things I've been hearing Him say is "if you want to be great in the kingdom, you must become the servant of all." Mark 9:35. I have found a new joy in ministry (ministry literally means to serve) with this "new" perspective. The most important word in that passage is "all." I've been guilty of neglecting "all" in favor of "mine." By mine I mean "my church." I've had the ungodly view that I have enough work to do just trying to care for the needs of "my church" that I neglected to serve anyone outside of it, especially if they were part of "someone else's church," which meant they were someone else's responsibility. So, I'm hearing from God a lot more than ever. He is saying that His kingdom is what matters most, not just our church. I know He loves First Baptist Church and has great plans for it.

In fact, I'm more excited about what God is going to do in and through First Baptist than ever before. I've mentioned over the past few weeks that we are planning on having baptisms every month, expecting to see people come to faith in Christ like never before. Our focus is not how we can build our church, but in how we can be faithful servants in God's kingdom. He will build His church how and when and where He chooses. I believe the more we serve Christ and His kingdom, the more He will be pleased to bless His church. I also believe if we are more concerned with our church than His kingdom He will remove our lampstand. So, what is God doing? What is God saying? Not only is He telling me to be the servant of all, but He is also communicating that all should be serving. Are you one of His? Are you a self-professing Christian? Are you a member of His kingdom? If you are answering positively to those questions, then the next question is, "how are you serving?" When our focus is on how to serve and love others rather than how to be served and loved by others, something ironically great happens. Joy increases. Not only is God pleased, but we find joy in serving and others find joy in a sense of being genuinely cared for. We serve a great God who has great plans and can accomplish immeasurably more than we can ask or even imagine!

Serving Christ and you, Luke

COLLIDE YOUTH!

Prayer Rocks!

Dear Church family,
During this Collide session I have been co-leading the youth. My focus has been teaching the Junior High kids. I'm having a fun time challenging the kids through sermon illustrations. I even presented an old Mr. T doll for all my A-Team people. We are staffed very well with volunteers and gifted people.

The challenge has just been issued to the youth groups to start to Pray. We have handed out 'Prayer Rocks' and coins for the kids to put into their pocket. Every time they see the rock we have asked them to remember to pray for the next Youth Pastor. Church family, will you please join us in this prayer. Join us in grabbing a rock to remember to pray and then remember to let the Prayer Rock.

The goal is to seek God's will and heart for the next person He is calling to serve Him. God will bring us His next servant and, on that day, we will bring our rocks back to give to this person as a memento that God has heard our prayers and sent us His servant. ~ Seth

Kids Club Ministry

We're starting to get a glimpse of warmer weather and sunny days to come and I, for one, am ready! Kids Club has been going strong on Wednesdays and we have a great group of volunteers in the nursery through 5th grade. If you're interested in learning about being on the Kids Club Crew next school year, please let me know.

This session we're walking through "The Promised Land" with The Gospel Project where the Israelites are learning what it means to trust God. I'm also excited to announce that on Valentine's Day we celebrated with eight kiddos who accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior. We also gave out lots of Bibles and a few

Jesus Storybook Bibles to kids who didn't have them. Bibles are always available to anyone who wants one! Just ask at the church office window and we'll give you one. We're also collecting food for the Mercer County Food Pantry at Kids Club and the kids are half-way to their goal. If they reach their goal (which they always do) they'll earn a party on the last night, March 21st. Keep up the great work, parents!

Our goal is to have two Secret Keeper Girl Events each school year where moms and daughters come together to learn about what it means to stay pure and to keep the "secret" of their heart for their future husband. And that there's nothing that daughters can't share in the safety of their relationship with their moms. We just recently had our Mom & Me Dessert Night with Tips from Mrs. Modesty with over 40 moms & daughters in attendance. If there are any ladies in the church who are passionate about mom & daughter relationships and pointing girls to Jesus, we need ladies to help with our events next school year. Please let me know if you're interested.

Our annual Kids Easter Event is on Good Friday, March 30th from 9am-Noon for kids ages 3-5th grade. The theme this year is "Journey to the Cross," where kids will learn the Easter story through fun activities, have games, an Easter Egg Hunt, a yummy snack, and focus on the true meaning of Easter, which is JESUS! Registration is now open at www.firstbaptistaledo.com. We need help! We're collecting plastic eggs and bags of candy (any kind and size). The donation baskets are at Kids Corner. Thanks so much for your help!

Kids can join Kids Club on Wednesdays or Kids Worship on Sunday mornings at 10:15am at any time! Check-out our Facebook page, "First Baptist Children's Ministry," or learn more at www.firstbaptistaledo.com. Please let me know if you have any questions or would like to serve in our kids ministry! Thanks for reading!

Baptism Sunday/Good Book/Time Change

Baptism Sunday at FBC
Sunday, March 25th at 8am & 10:15am

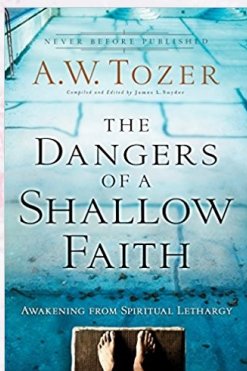

Baptism is an important event in the believer's walk with Jesus Christ. The Bible talks about water immersion baptism in which a believer makes a public confession of their faith. Jesus lead the way in example of water baptism! If you are wondering what it means to be baptized in the Christian faith, here are a few verses that can look up that can help explain baptism.

Romans 6:1-18, Act 2:38-41, Luke 3:21-22, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 22:16, Colossians 2:12 & Galatians 3:27

Have you been considering "officially joining" First Baptist by becoming a member, verses an attender but you were not sure what your next steps are? For some, it may mean transferring membership from another church, for others who have had a believer's baptism it may be making a statement of faith but for some it is taking that first step of obedience and getting baptized. Whatever your circumstance is, if you would like to learn more about becoming a member at First Baptist, Pastor Luke or Pastor Seth would be happy to sit down and talk with you about it. Call the church office at 582-7812 to make an appointment.

Book Of The Month Dangers Of A Shallow Faith By A.W. Tozer

In The Dangers of a Shallow Faith, renowned theologian A.W. Tozer warns believers in Christ against the great danger of spiritual lethargy. He urges Christians to be aware of the times in which they live and to recognize how attempting to live a life for God on autopilot will actually undermine their faith. For Tozer, the risks are so significant that "breaking out from the tyranny of spiritual lethargy --whatever the cost--should be the number-one priority of every Christian."

In this never-before-published compilation, followers of Christ will discover anew the importance of standing boldly against spiritual and moral slumber. They will also see the importance of remaining awake in the face of constant temptation and distraction. Discover the spiritual awakening and change the Holy Spirit can bring to your life as you surrender completely to God and walk in a deeper faith!

A few copies of this book will be available for $12 each. Books can be found at the church office window or ordered on Amazon.

Baby/Child Dedications
Sunday, March 25th

What does it mean to have your baby or young child Dedicated? The word "dedication" means "to consecrate" or the act of setting apart people or things to serve God.

If you would like your child dedicated, please talk to Luke or call the church office at 582-7812 and let us know your desire to do so. The Baby/Child Dedication will be on Sunday, March 25th.
