UPDATE! 4/22/20

Hello Church Family!

Based on what we are hearing from our state and federal updates, we expect live church services to be restricted through the month of May, and possibly longer. Each day and each week, we keep hoping for more information about how and when the government will begin to implement the phases of returning to normal. We already know that when the stages begin, the first two will still be pretty restrictive. We don't know when stage one will start, or how long each stage will last. As everyone knows at this point, we are in a waiting period.

So, what does this mean for FBC?

3 things you should know: Read on...

In Christ, Pastor Luke

Second, Strong God, strong church, strong faith.

- God is working in powerful ways! We will have a page on our website to share stories of how God is working. Please send us a testimony or story of how God is working in your life or the life of someone you know through fbcaledo2@frontiernet.net or by Facebook messenger.
- We are continually amazed at the strength of our church through this experience. You have been faithful to volunteer, donate to the blessing box, and deacon fund, as well as regular tithes and offerings. Many people are utilizing the giving option through our website, others are mailing checks. Thank you so much, you rock!

First, How to stay connected.

- Virtual engagements – Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday via Facebook @ 6:30pm. And Sunday Mornings at 9am with Mollie.
- Worship Services – We plan to continue to have a facebook live service at 10:15am which is also available through firstbaptistaledo.com. We are on WRMJ at 10:15am the first three Sundays each month, and at 5:10pm on the fourth Sunday.
- You are always encouraged to call, email or send us a message through facebook. You can send prayer concerns through our website as well.

Third, Cancellations.

- We've had to make decisions on a few things...
- Everything that was scheduled between now through June is either cancelled or postponed till further notice, such as VBS, All Night Out, and CIY Move.
- Don't be discouraged, we have some cool fun stuff planned in the meantime, and will be thinking of some creative ways to celebrate when this is over.

Stay tuned . . .
